

Comma Splices

1. Most of my friends are going to the concert; unfortunately, I won't be able to.
2. Sandra licked the stamp, mailed the letter, and returned home feeling like she had accomplished something important.
3. Far too many accidents are preventable, said the police officer. I couldn't agree more.
4. They expected the lecture to be boring; however, they found it extremely informative and even entertaining.
5. The baseball season has just started, but the hockey season is almost over.