Dr. Janice Keefe

Dr. Janice Keefe is internationally renowned for her research in Family/Friend caregiving. As Professor and Canada Research Chair in Aging & Caregiving Policy at Mount Saint Vincent University, Dr. Keefe is well respected for translating her research into policy and locally for her contributions to Gerontology in Nova Scotia. She is currently the Director, Nova Scotia Centre on Aging, Lena Isabel Jodrey Chair in Gerontology, a Professor in the Department of Family Studies and Gerontology and holds appointments at Dalhousie Faculties of Medicine and Graduate Studies. Dr. Keefe will discuss the valuable contributions made by family and friends in their roles as caregivers. She will highlight the challenges caregivers face and explore policy changes that can make a positive difference.
