

QUICK FACTS

166 Bedford Highway, Halifax, NS, B3M 2J6 902-457-6788

Innovative Mix of Academic Programs

- Undergraduate programs in Arts, Science, Education, and a number of professional programs including Applied Human Nutrition, Business Administration, Child and Youth Study, Public Relations, and Tourism and Hospitality Management.
- 13 graduate degrees in areas including Applied Human Nutrition, Child and Youth Study, Education, Family Studies and Gerontology, Public Relations and Women's Studies.
- 11 certificate and diploma programs

Our Campus Community

- Founded in 1873
- Over 4,000 students from 60 countries
- More than 300 full and part-time faculty
- More than 230 staff
- More than 26,500 alumnae around the world
- 38.5 acres of lush green space with modern and classical buildings

What Sets us Apart

- Each year, hundreds of students benefit from more than $1.5 million in scholarships and bursaries associated with the Mount.
- Average class size of 24 - nationally recognized as being amongst the lowest in Canada
- 93% satisfaction with the quality of teaching (2009 survey of graduating students)
- 94% satisfaction with the accessibility of professors (2009 survey of graduating students)
- Offers only Masters of Public Relations program in Canada
- Offers only Bachelor of Science in Communications Studies in Canada
- Recently launched first joint interdisciplinary PhD in Educational Studies in Atlantic Canada in conjunction with Acadia University and St. Francis Xavier University
- Only Atlantic Canadian University to offer Child and Youth Study
- Only University in Canada to hold a Chair in Learning Disabilities
- Home to a nationally recognized art gallery

A Leader Among Universities

- First university in the Maritimes to offer co-operative education
- First English-speaking Bachelor of Public Relations in Canada
- A leader in distance education, with more than 200 courses (undergraduate and graduate) offered online and at a distance.

A Leader in Research

- Nationally recognized among undergraduate universities in Canada for Social Sciences and Humanities Research Council grants per faculty with over $3.1 million in awards
- Natural Science and Engineering Research Council grants have increased to $1.19 million
- More than 100 ongoing research partnerships with community organizations
- Over $1 million earned by undergraduate and graduate students in research positions over the past three years
- Only Atlantic Chair for Women in Science and Engineering (NSERC) - Dr. Tamara Franz-Odenaal

Four Canada Research Chairs

- Dr. Dianne Looker (Equity and Technology)
- Dr. Janice Keefe (Aging and Caregiving Policy)
- Dr. Marnina Gonick (Gender Identity and Social Practices)
- Dr. Patricia Williams (Food Security and Policy Change)

Unique Research Facilities on Campus

- Atlantic Canada Communications Issues Research Lab
- Nancy's Chair in Women's Studies
- The Catherine Wallace Centre for Women in Science
- The Centre for Women in Business
- The Child Study Centre
- The Institute for Women, Gender and Social Justice
- The Learning Centre for Graduate Education Students
- The Maritime Data Centre for Aging Research and Policy Analysis
- The Nova Scotia Centre on Aging
- The Social, Emotional and Cognitive Development Observation and Interview Centre
- The Technology Learning and Resource Centre