

Science Atlantic Nutrition and Foods Conference 2019
Mount Saint Vincent University, Halifax, Nova Scotia

Logo competition - Calling all creative nutrition and foods scientist trainees!

Science Atlantic Nutrition and Foods committee is organizing its first-ever conference and it is in need of a logo!

One logo will be selected and presented at the Inaugural Science Atlantic Nutrition and Foods Conference. The logo will be printed on a variety of print and online materials (including but not limited to documentation, banners, t-shirts, website, social media etc.) and used for future conferences.

Guidelines for submission:

The logo should include the name of the committee (Science Atlantic Nutrition and Foods/ Science Atlantique Nutrition et Alimentation).

The submission should include both English and French versions of the logo.

The logo should be in color.

The submission should be in .pdf format with transparent background.

The deadline for the submission is January 15th 2019 at 11:59 AST.

Eligibility:

The logo competition is open to all nutrition and science students from Atlantic Canadian Universities (both undergraduate and graduate).

Prize:

The winner of the logo competition will be announced in advance of the conference and will get a free full admission to Inaugural Science Atlantic Nutrition and Foods Conference at MSVU in 2019. The winner will be also invited on stage during the conference to receive recognition.
