

14 Month Observation Report

Preservice Teacher _____

Elementary

Secondary

The intent of this report is to offer some informal written feedback for your 14-month preservice teacher. While this report will not form part of the formal evaluation that takes place during the April to June block, it is an opportunity to let the preservice teacher know what has been working for them and some things that they may want to work on moving forward keeping in mind that they are still at a very early stage in practical development.

Some things that are working for you:

Some things to think about moving forward:

A large, empty rectangular box with a thin black border, intended for the user to write their thoughts on moving forward.
