

What to expect in your first week of classes

From your Mount Mentors!

First Day Essentials

- A notebook and pen / pencil
- Highlighters
- A water bottle and snack
- Optional: a device (e.g., laptop, tablet)
- For online classes:
 - A quiet study space with minimal distractions
 - A reliable network connection
 - A working speaker and microphone
 - Headphones optional

First Day Expectations

- Often starts with an overview the syllabus and assignments / expectations
- You may review relevant background material
- The professor may start the first lecture if they have time
- Be prepared to take notes
- You won't need your textbooks on the first day, so you can wait to purchase them until you know that you need them

AI at MSVU

- Every professor has their own policy
- Ranges from none at all to open use
- Check your syllabus
- Ask your professor if you aren't sure!
- Claiming any work you haven't done yourself as your own is plagiarism – including AI use! Learn how to cite if you use it
- Visit libguides.msvu.ca/ai for more info

Your Schedule

- Access it using MyMount
- Keep a copy handy during your first few weeks!
