What Employers Want to See

Contributions you make to your community reflect well on you as an individual. Employers are looking for students who are dedicated, hard working, and show a commitment to their interests. By getting involved on-campus (for societies visit mountstudents.ca) or off-campus early in your degree, you will not only show credibility in your area of interest but also a willingness to work towards goals.

You can also build your Mount Co-Curricular Record (CCR) with these activities at msvu.ca/CCRP and present this official document to future employers.

Necessary Skills

- Strong communication skills
- Researching and writing skills
- Reporting skills
- Word processing and editing skills
- Knowledge of current social trends

Where Can You Work?

A Family Studies and Gerontology Major offers a broad background in the humanities, arts, and social sciences. Graduates from Family Studies and Gerontology programs may find careers in health, sciences, community services, government services or education.

A Family Studies and Gerontology degree is also a great stepping stone for further education. Visit the Bachelor of Arts—Family Studies and Gerontology Major webpage for more information.
