

Bachelor of Business Administration?

Know What's Expected

Business students study a broad range of subjects including accounting, marketing, management and human resources. With a Bachelor of Business Administration degree, employers will expect that you are an effective communicator, are well organized, have an interest in the business world and enjoy solving problems. French may also be an asset in some positions.

Transferable Skills

- Analysis and interpretation of information and the ability to critically evaluate it
- Excellent communication, organizational, and negotiation skills
- Initiative and ability to accept new ideas and take risks
- Computer Literacy

What Employers Want to See

Contributions you make to your community reflect well on you as an individual. Employers are looking for students who are dedicated, hard working, and show a commitment to their interests. By getting involved on-campus (for societies visit mountstudents.ca) or off-campus early in your degree, you will not only show credibility in your area of interest but also a willingness to work towards goals.

You can also build your Mount Co-Curricular Record (CCR) with these activities at msvu.ca/CCRP and present this official document to future employers.

Necessary Skills

- Strong written and verbal communications skills
- Leadership
- Decision making
- Organizing
- Project Management
