

Are you interested in helping to change the lives of at-risk youth in Nova Scotia?

We are looking for Nutrition and Education Volunteers!!

Volunteer Description:

Pathways to Education is a national, community-based program that provides academic support to youth in marginalized communities. Founded in 2001 in Toronto's Regent Park, the program has continued to expand to 18 other communities in Canada. Our goal is to make sure that all eligible youth in the Spryfield area are well equipped to pursue post-secondary education and/or meaningful employment.

Spryfield Pathways to Education is looking for Nutrition and Education volunteer to support the healthy snacks initiative in our after school programming.

Volunteers are expected to work 1-2 hours per week for our afternoon and evening sessions.

All volunteers must be able and willing to complete a criminal offence declaration form.

Specific Skills:

Interest in the role of healthy food and nutrition in achieving academic success; food preparation, service and handling experience; experience working with youth and marginalized communities.
