PRIOR LEARNING ASSESSMENT

What is a PLA Portfolio and how is prior learning assessed?

Prior Learning Assessment can be granted for up to 50 percent of any undergraduate credential.

Prior Learning Assessment (PLA) is the assessment and evaluation of learning acquired through work/life experiences. The basic principle of PLA is that any learning that can be identified, described and demonstrated is important and valid.

Credits through PLA are determined on a course-match basis.

PLA candidates begin by identifying the courses for assessment. You must first examine course outlines and other course information to determine if your learning from life/work experiences matches with the Mount course outcomes. It is up to you as a PLA candidate to demonstrate that you have achieved the learning outcomes of the courses.

Normally a portfolio should contain

- a. description of learning experiences
- b. identification of knowledge, skills, and abilities related to course learning outcomes,
- c. supporting documentation to verify the learning claimed

(The portfolio documents and describes the learning you have acquired through your intellectual and professional growth. It normally includes learning narratives and a chronological record of your experiences.)

It is important to remember that credit is not awarded for experience but for your ability to demonstrate that the experiences, knowledge, and/or skills have met the learning outcomes of the course for which you are seeking credit.

HOW TO PROCEED:

- Submit your PLA Application form, application fee and Portfolio for review of content to the Registrar's Office.
- The Registrar's Office will advise you if the application is complete or if further information should be provided. Once completed the Registrar's Office will forward onto the appropriate Department Chair.
- Following review of your Portfolio by the Department, the Registrar will advise you if credit has been approved or not, and your Portfolio will be returned to you. At this time, you will be required to pay the PLA Fee for each half unit awarded – one-half of the normal tuition rate for the course.

The Portfolio Development Course (UNIV 2100)

The Mount recommends that students intending to request credit by portfolio assessment to register for the Portfolio Development Course, UNIV 2100. This course provides an excellent opportunity for you to gain an understanding of and to use the full range of skills and learning you have acquired to prepare your Portfolio.

UNIV 2100 may also count as 0.50 unit of professional elective in your degree program at the Mount.
