Mount Co-op Employer of the Year Awards (2017)

In 2009 we instituted the Mount Co-op Employer of the Year Award in recognition of the 30th Anniversary of Co-operative Education at the Mount. This award acknowledges employers who have displayed commitment, excellence and longstanding support of the Mount's Co-op program. These partnerships are critical for the success of our program. The selection criteria included the work environment, leadership and mentorship, how the employer supported student learning and a longstanding commitment to co-op. The Mount Co-op Employer of the Year (2017) recipients are:

Public Relations

Margaret Angus, Senior Communications Advisor
Nova Scotia Health Authority
Nominated by: Kathryn Gallant, BPR Co-op Student

Business Administration

Krista Harding, Executive Director
