Academic Integrity and Citation

What do the following have in common?

1. Littering

2. Running a red light

3. Shoplifting

4. Pick pocketing

Academic Integrity and Citation

They are all examples of dishonesty

Academic Integrity and Citation

What is academic dishonesty?

Academic Integrity and Citation

What are some examples of academic dishonesty?

- Cheating
- Collusion
- Paper purchasing
- Duplicate submission

Academic Integrity and Citation

What is one more example of academic dishonesty?

PLAGIARISM

Academic Integrity and Citation

What does it mean to plagiarize?

According to Webster's International Dictionary, the definition of plagiarism is “to steal... and pass off as one's own the ideas, words, or artistic production of another; to use without credit the ideas, expressions, or productions of another.”

Basically, plagiarism comes in three forms:

- Fraud
- Patch Writing (or Patchwork Plagiarism/Paraphrasing)
- Insufficient or Undocumented Paraphrasing

Academic Integrity and Citation

What does it mean to plagiarize? Continued...

Each paper that you turn in and every sentence in it must be written completely by you, or you must give proper credit to the other writers for their ideas and words with citations.

In addition, most teachers consider handing in papers that were written for other classes to be a form of plagiarism. New papers should be written for each assignment unless your teacher indicates otherwise.

Remember that writing teachers are experienced at picking out papers that contain plagiarism. Do not be tempted to download papers from the web or to "recycle" papers from other students.

Academic Integrity and Citation

Choose the correct answer(s)

Plagiarism is:

- a. Using someone else's words as if they were your own
- b. Using someone else's ideas as if they were your own
- c. Using someone else's results as if they were your own
- d. Getting your ideas from a textbook

Answer: All of the above!

Academic Integrity and Citation

Choose the correct answer(s)

Plagiarism is legally and ethically wrong because:

- a You may get caught and lose marks
- b It is dishonest
- c Assignments that are plagiarized fail to demonstrate your knowledge of the work
- d You don't learn anything by copying another's work
- e It steals others' ideas

Answer: All of the above!

Academic Integrity and Citation

Choose the correct answer(s)

You may be accused of plagiarism if you:

- a. Copy a completed assignment that your friend has emailed to you
- b. Pay anyone to write any part of an assignment for you
- c. Lend a completed assignment to a friend, who then copies any part of it and then claims as their own
- d. Hand in someone's else work as your own
- e. Use the same assignment twice for two different classes, even though it's yours

Answer: All of the above!

Academic Integrity and Citation

Why shouldn't you plagiarize?

1. Plagiarizing is seen as stealing or lying
2. Plagiarizing puts your educational future at risk – you can be expelled from the university
3. Plagiarizing hurts your opportunity to have a fulfilling educational experience

So what can you do to avoid plagiarizing?

1. Start your assignments early
2. Understand your assignments
3. Understand your readings and articles
4. Do not purchase assignments
5. Do not recycle assignments – your own or your friends'
6. Cite

Academic Integrity and Citation

What does it mean “to cite?”

To cite – to write or say the ideas of a writer or speaker as a direct quotation or paraphrase

What is a “direct quote”?

A Direct Quote – something that is written exactly (word-for-word) from another author

What does “paraphrase” mean?

To Paraphrase – to state something written or spoken into different words but keeping the original meaning

Academic Integrity and Citation

To cite – to write or say the ideas of a writer or speaker as a direct quotation or paraphrase

How do you cite a direct quotation or paraphrase in your writing assignment?

There are several citation styles and style guides:

1. APA Style (American Psychological Association)
2. MLA (Modern Language Association)
3. Chicago Manual of Style
4. Nutrition Citation Style
5. American Chemical Society

Academic Integrity and Citation

Using APA:

Today's presentation will look at 2 types of APA citation:

1. The Reference List
2. In-text Citation
 - paraphrased
 - a direct quote

Citation, in any style, has a specific "formula" for each source. Whether is it the Reference List or in-text, a direct quote or a paraphrase, it must be followed always.

Academic Integrity and Citation

Conquer APA!

Take the info you have... and organize it APA style.

- Title of work
- Title of entry/article
- Publication date
- Author's name(s)
- Editor's name(s)
- Location
- Publisher
- Web address
- Pages
- Volume & issue number
- Media format/file type
- Edition statement
- Date Accessed

Book:

Author, A. A. (Date). Title of work. Location: Publisher.

Entry from a Reference Work or a Reference Book:

Author, A. A., & Author, B. B. (Date). Title of entry. In A. Editor, B. Editor, & C. Editor (Eds.), Title of work. (xx. ed., Vol. xx, pp. xx-xx). Location: Publisher.

Journal Article from a Database:

Author, A. A. (Date). Title of article. Title of Periodical, Volume (Issue), Pages. Retrieved from <http://journal/homepage/index.html>

Multimedia:

Creator, A. A. (Date). Title of work [media format/file type]. Retrieved from <http://journal/homepage/index.html>

Website:

Author, A. A. (Date). Title of document. Retrieved Date Accessed from <http://web/address/home.html>

Academic Integrity and Citation

The Reference List

- In APA, the list of sources at the end of the paper (bibliography) is called the Reference List
- The reference list must include all references cited in the text of your paper
- This title is at the top centre of the page in bold font
- Order of references is alphabetical, by the last name of the first author or, if author is not available - by title
- For the author's first name use only initials: 'Smith, J.', not 'Smith, Jennifer'
- Use a “hanging indent” for the Reference List (to start a line of text further from the left margin - use the ‘Ctrl-Tab’ keys or press the ‘space bar’ five times)
- Double-space between all lines of your work, including references

Academic Integrity and Citation

The Reference List

For example, a journal article from a database:

Tuck, E. (2012). Decolonization is not a metaphor. Decolonization Indigeneity, Education & Society, 1(1),pp.40 <https://clas.osu.edu/sites/clas.osu.edu/files/>

Formula:

Author, A. (Year). Name of the article. Name of the periodical or journal, (volume)(issue), pp pages. Give doi if available, if not give URL but only if URL is available to all readers

Author + First initial + period + parenthesis + date + parenthesis + period + Name of the article + period + Name of the Periodical + comma + (volume) in Italics + (issue) no Italics + comma + pp pages + period + doi or URL + no period

In-Text Citation – Direct Quote

- A direct quote copies an original author word-for-word
- Incorporated into your writing encased with double quotation marks " "
- Include the Author, Year, and page number where you found the quote

"International students benefit greatly from a mandatory pre-departure Academic Skills course" (Cashen, 2021, p. 330).

OR

Cashen (2021) believes "international students benefit greatly from a mandatory pre-departure Academic Skills course (p.220).

Academic Integrity and Citation

In-Text Citation – Paraphrase

- Restate another's words or ideas using your own words
- Incorporate into your paragraph
- Include the Author and Date
- No quotation marks, no page number
- Paraphrase most of the time in your assignment, only 1-3 direct quotes

When arriving at MSVU, staff and faculty have a moral obligation to introduce research and citation regulations to international students who may otherwise be unfamiliar (Cashen, 2021).

OR

Cashen (2021) argues staff and faculty have a moral obligation to introduce research and citation regulations to international students who may otherwise be unfamiliar.

International Education Centre

The International Education Centre (IEC) at MSVU offers personal, academic, cultural and immigration advising to international students in Canada, as well as any student or faculty wishing to study, research or conduct projects abroad. The IEC is also home to the University's English for Academic Purposes programs.

TRAVELING TO CANADA: COVID-19 REQUIREMENTS

Information on these pages reflect the travel and quarantine regulations beginning January 15, 2022.

MSVU international students are no longer required to have their quarantine plans approved by the International Education Centre. However, you are still required to have a quarantine plan to enter Canada. Please continue to check this website as it will help you create your own quarantine plan and will prepare you for your travel to Canada.

If you need further support, please email international@msvu.ca.

ONLINE SUPPORT FOR INTERNATIONAL STUDENTS SUMMER 2022

We gathered a number of online support webinars and workshops that will help you in your transition to Canada. The list is a combination of academic and student life support services and information. Please continue to visit this page as we are continuously adding to the list.
