Research Security Centre Safeguarding Science Webinars

The Research Security Centre will be hosting a series of 6 safeguarding science webinars between July and December 2024. The webinars aim to assist participants:

- access guidance and tools to strengthen security posture;
- understand best practices to identify and mitigate research security threats;
- pursue and maintain safe research partnerships;
- maintain institutional reputation of a safe research organization; and protect valuable research, data or potentially patentable property.

The webinars are intended for, but not limited to, researchers, research staff including technicians, postdoctoral fellow and students, research security professionals, research administrators, information technology and information management staff, security personnel, biosafety and radiological safety officers, human resources personnel, supply chain personnel and senior management.

Each Webinar has a limit of 250 participants. Please register with a university or professional email address. Otherwise, your registration may be denied.

FUNDING: INTERNAL

Are you preparing a large-scale collaborative grant proposal?

Internal grants are available to support administrative or technical support, research team meetings, application coordination, or related needs.

Note: For timely processing, please ensure you are using the most up-to-date forms, found on our website Internal Grants \(msvu.ca\)

Upcoming internal deadlines

- Tri-Agency USRAs \(Fall Term, if applicable\): NSERC USRA, CIHR and SSHRC USRA Designated Awards
- Deadline: July 15

FUNDING: EXTERNAL

Research Nova Scotia Funding

New Health Investigator Grant (Open today!)

Expression of interest deadline: Thursday, July 4, 2024, at 1:00 PM (ADT)

Invitation to full application: August 2024

Full application deadline: Thursday, October 3, 2024 at 1:00 PM (ADT)

The New Health Investigator Grant supports early-career health researchers engaged in research focused on the efficient and effective delivery of healthcare to Nova Scotians. The grant will provide up to $100,000 over two years for researchers who are within the first five years of their first academic appointment in Nova Scotia.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

MSVU Research Office Announcements

Many Thanks to Adriana!

On behalf of the Research Office at MSVU, we are sorry to have to say farewell to our Administrative Assistant, Adriana Quezada. Adriana joined our team on May 13 and her last day will be May 14, 2024.

In Adriana's absence, the email inbox for research@msvu.ca will be monitored by other staff members and might take longer than usual to reply.

We will Soon be Hiring a Grants Coordinator and an Administrative Assistant

Our previous Research Grants Coordinator, Derra Truscott, finished her time with the Research Office on May 17, 2024. Grants support is currently being provided by Jacqueline Gahagan, Associate Vice President of Research.

Due to other commitments and with our Administrative Assistant departing, replies to emails about research grants and general inquiries might take longer than usual. We advise that requests and questions be sent well in advance for improved timely processing.

Please be patient with us as we enter the hiring process for the new Grants Coordinator and Administrative Assistant. We will keep the community informed.

The MSVU Research Ethics Board is Looking for a Community Member

Our University Research Ethics Board (UREB) is seeking a Community Member with no current affiliation with MSVU to join the UREB. The UREB reviews the ethical acceptability of research involving humans or their data conducted by university MSVU faculty, staff and students.

This volunteer position is for a renewable 3-year term and requires approximately 5-10 hours per month, including a monthly meeting. The Community Member will review 2-3 research ethics protocols per month and provide written comments on the ethical components of the proposed research.

Read the full details of the role.

University Research Ethics Board August 2024 Hiatus

The University Research Ethics Board (UREB) will not be accepting new applications for the month of August 2024 except for some emergent research deemed urgent by the UREB and the Researcher, or research related to a publicly declared emergency – See REB.SOP.501. The deadline to submit new applications for review during the summer is July 26, 2024. New applications received after this date will be processed and sent for review on September 3, 2024.

The UREB will continue to process the following items in August*:

- Revisions/Clarifications for applications already under review prior to July 26th
- Requests for Modifications or Renewals for current studies
- Changes to Study Personnel
- Final reports and file closures
- Unanticipated or Adverse Research Event Reports (including Privacy Breaches related to research studies)

*Note that there may be delays in processing these items due to volume and/or membership leaves (e.g., vacations).

The contact information for this period remains the same:

General Inquiries or Protocol Submission – ethics@msvu.ca

Research Ethics Coordinator – Brenda Gagné – brenda.gagne@msvu.ca

Research Community Announcements

SSHRC Data Centre Move and Impacts on Programs and Activities

The Social Sciences and Humanities Research Council's corporate websites and several of their funding portals and applications will be unavailable from Friday, June 28, 2024, at 4 p.m. (eastern), until Tuesday, July 2, 2024, at 8 a.m. (eastern). The planned outage is because SSHRC and NSERC's data centre is being moved. All systems are expected to be operational again on July 2 following the data centre move.

Read about which systems will be unavailable during the move.

The Conversation Canada is Looking for Authors ASAP: Exclusive Call for MSVU

MSVU is a member of The Conversation Canada, allowing collaboration with editors to highlight MSVU scholars and their work. Their Editor-in-Chief recently shared a list of topics which they're looking to cover if they can identify a Canadian university researcher interested in writing.

This is a great opportunity for global knowledge translation and raising awareness of MSVU academic programs. The writing process is easy, and Gillian Batten, Director of University Relations, and Dr. Jacqueline Gahagan, AVP Research are happy to assist. You can also contact the section editors noted below if any of these topics are of interest. If they're not, please consider pitching your own!

Please find the message from The Conversation Canada's Editor-in-Chief below:

Quarter Life: Series written for young people (20s-30s):

We are looking for articles that provide advice and tips on how to talk to people you don't know and improve your interactions and conversations with new friends or partners.

Deadline: ASAP

Editor: Ibrahim Daair, ibrahim.daair@theconversation.com

Should you break up with your skincare routine? Which products do you really need vs. which are harmful? Looking for an article by a dermatologist to counter misinformation shared by influencers.

Deadline: ASAP

Editor: Lisa Varano, lisa.varano@theconversation.com

Gen Z wants to quit dating apps and meet people in real life. So, how do you meet people IRL now? Seeking tips from a researcher who studies youth, dating or relationships.

Deadline: ASAP

Editor: Lisa Varano, lisa.varano@theconversation.com

Energy + Environment:

Is climate change really making air travel more turbulent? Looking for a brief explainer on the science and, if so, what are the implications for the industry and passenger safety?

Deadline: ASAP

Editor: Harris Kuemmerle, harris.kuemmerle@theconversation.com

Arts:

How countries fund the arts: In wake of cascading arts closures and financial sustainability issues, what is known about notable international models for sustainable arts funding and infrastructure? Seeking pitches.

Deadline: ASAP

Editor: Susannah Schmidt, susannah.schmidt@theconversation.com

Arts and culture patronage and philanthropy in colonial and post-colonial societies: Seeking analysis of the complex relationship between arts and culture patronage and political and cultural movements.

Deadline: ASAP

Editor: Susannah Schmidt, susannah.schmidt@theconversation.com

Politics:

This June 6 is the 80th anniversary of the D-Day landings. Looking for a story to mark the occasion with an overview discussion on the landings, their role within the war, and the wider legacy of WWII narratives and processes of memorialization within contemporary global politics.

Deadline: ASAP

Editor: Harris Kuemmerle, harris.kuemmerle@theconversation.com

Education:

Gaza campus protests: Seeking historical or legal research about political action and university life. Are there meaningful or notable precedents to help people reflect on potential consequences for campus dissidence (by students or faculty) or what this means today?

Deadline: ASAP

Editor: Susannah Schmidt, susannah.schmidt@theconversation.com

We ask authors to please sign up and then pitch an article idea, rather than email a fully written article to the editors.

Sensitive Technology Research and Affiliations of Concern (STRAC) Policy

In accordance with the Sensitive Technology Research and Affiliations of Concern \(STRAC\) Policy, grant applications submitted by a university or affiliated research institution to the federal granting agencies and the Canada Foundation for Innovation involving research that aims to advance a Sensitive Technology Research Area will not be funded if any of the researchers involved in activities supported by the grant are currently affiliated with, or in receipt of funding or in-kind support, from a Named Research Organization.

The federal granting agencies are implementing the STRAC Policy in a harmonized manner, to funding opportunities that launched as of May 1, 2024. Further guidance, including detailed procedures and a list of funding opportunities that will apply this Policy, have been published through the Tri-Agency Guidance on the STRAC Policy webpage.

Please consult the appropriate funding opportunity literature to determine whether the STRAC Policy applies and, where applicable, for any additional information on procedures to be followed.

Resulting Changes for rolling intake funding opportunities, such as Alliance

As of May 1, 2024, new requirements apply to all Alliance grant applications aiming to advance a listed sensitive technology research area. Further information on these new requirements, including new responsibilities of researchers and responsibilities of institutions, are provided on the Tri-Agency Guidance on the STRAC Policy webpage.

This includes, at the application phase, a requirement for researchers in named roles to complete the Attestation for Research Aiming to Advance Sensitive Technology Research Areas Form.

Tri-Agency Guidance on Research Security

The federal research funding agencies also encourage consulting the Safeguarding your Research portal, which provides additional resources and tools for the academic community to assess and mitigate security risks associated with their research.

To learn more about the Canada Foundation for Innovation's implementation of research security measures, please consult its dedicated guidance page.

MSVU Research & Community Announcements

MSVU's Alexa McDonough Institute for Women is hiring for Manager and Chair

The Alexa McDonough Institute for Women, Gender, and Social Justice (AMI) invites applications for a new Manager and Chair. This 60% (21 hours p/week) contract is for 22 months and the application deadline is June 14.

Learn more about this position.

MSVU's AMI Steering Committee is Looking for Members

The AMI Steering Committee also hopes to fill three faculty positions, one staff, one part-time, and two community member positions. The Committee meets approximately six times per year and supports a range of public-facing feminist initiatives on campus.

For more information, please contact carrie.dawson@msvu.ca.

Call for MSVU Dimensions Chair

The MSVU Dimensions Committee is still looking for a 2024 Chair.

As of April, MSVU was named a member of the Dimensions program which publicly recognizes postsecondary institutions seeking to increase equity, diversity and inclusion (EDI) in their environments and across the research ecosystem.

The Dimensions Committee will meet monthly throughout the academic year to discuss how to continue to move this initiative forward, specifically the actions within our Dimensions Action Plan.

If you are interested, please contact research@msvu.ca!

MSVU Pride Lunch & Learns

Are you working in the area of 2SLGBTQIA+ research? Are you interested in sharing your research with others at MSVU at one of our upcoming MSVU Pride 'lunch and learns'?

If so, please reach out to keltie.jones@MSVU to put your name forward or to get more information.

Call for Presentations: Research Over Coffee

Are you an expert researcher in a topic of interest to Nova Scotians? Does your work grapple with issues confronting municipal, provincial, or federal governments? RNS is seeking interested academics for their 2023-24 Research Over Coffee series. Research Nova Scotia and Dalhousie University launched the webinar series Research Over Coffee in 2020 to enable Nova Scotia researchers to share their expertise on pressing issues with government decision makers.

If you're interested in presenting your research to government stakeholders, please send a 250-word overview of your presentation to stephanie.reid@researchns.ca.
